

A THOUGHT
And the servant of the Lord must not strive, but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient.—II Timothy 2:24.

WEATHER
Arkansas Fair Saturday night and Sunday; warmer Sunday.

RUSSIA FORESEES NEW WAR

Expect Coalition for Cook, Ashley and Sen. Johnson

Three Candidates Reported Uniting Against Ed F. McDonald

BUREAUS ARE SPLIT

Wasson Rumored as One Who Won't Support Administration Choice

LITTLE ROCK.—Conferences looking to consolidation of supporters of three of the candidates for governor who earlier in the campaign were regarded as possible recipients of Futrell administration backing will be held in Little Rock Saturday night, it was learned on good authority Friday night.

The candidates are Senator Arthur J. Johnson of Star City, Pulaski County Judge R. A. Cook, and Senator John C. Ashley of Izard county.

Senator Johnson canceled several speaking engagements Friday and came to his headquarters in the Hotel Marion. Ashley and Judge Cook were scheduled to participate in the conferences, but it was reported that men with authority to speak for the candidates had not arrived late Friday night and that the proposed coalition conferences had been deferred.

Senator Johnson declined to comment on reports that he might withdraw, saying that he had no statement, except that he will fill his speaking engagement at the City park handball here Saturday night.

Three Earlier Withdrawals

Such a coalition as that under consideration would indicate a further breach within the administration. Three others who had been elected as administration possibilities when the ticket closed have since withdrawn. They were Dave Partain of Van Buren, Lieut. Gov. Lee Cazor and Circuit Judge S. M. Bony of Batesville, and one of them, Mr. Cazor, has become aligned with Attorney General Carl E. Bailey, against whom the administration has been directing its attack throughout the campaign.

A week ago, the administration was behind Senator Ashley but it abandoned him Thursday and went over to Secretary of State Ed F. McDonald. None of the others who started out as pro-administration aspirants has indicated satisfaction with the developments.

Judge Cook was reported to be seeking combined support of Senator Ashley and Senator Johnson, and indications were that the latter's attitude would determine whether the proposal would be accepted.

Friends of Senator Ashley insisted Friday night that Governor Futrell's consent to the shift of support of McDonald was given unwillingly and as the result of tremendous political pressure. They were of the opinion that if a Johnson-Ashley-Cook alliance could be formed, it might be possible even yet to unite much of the administration support behind a candidate other than McDonald.

Wasson Silent As to Attitude

At the statehouse, it was reported that State Bank Commissioner Marion Wasson, one of Governor Futrell's closest advisers, had declined to join other administration leaders in the switch from Ashley to McDonald.

These reports were to the effect that Mr. Wasson would continue to support Ashley. Mr. Wasson declined to deny or confirm the report, saying that he preferred not to discuss political rumors.

Annual cost of crime in the United States has been estimated at $14,000,000,000.

Turned Brown

By Brown Turner

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—(Special)—Deaths from automobile mishaps in the United States the first six months of the year were 500 fewer than for the same period last year, a checkup shows, which proves one of two things. Either the population has been thinned out to a stand or drivers have become encouraged over prospects of the Townsend plan.

Freight car loadings for the week ending July 25 reached a five-year high, but the Republicans haven't blamed the increase on the New Deal yet. Some of the defeated office seekers will be like some jobless and blame the results on machines.

Girl, Sweetheart Held for Murder

Couple 17 and 18 Charged With Hatchet-Death of Girl's Mother

BAYONNE, N. J.—(AP)—Smiling affectionately at each other during their arraignment, Gladys MacKnight, 17, and her young sweetheart, Donald Wightman, 18, were formally charged with murder Saturday for the hatchet-slaying of the girl's mother.

So unconcerned that she giggled light-heartedly in an anteroom before she was led into court, the girl stood close to Wightman as they were held without bail for grand jury action after waiving any pleas.

Like Paul Bunyan, Uses Ox at Plow

Gold Prospector Turns to Cultivation of His 40-Acre Farm

M'CLEARY, Wash.—(AP)—When Fred Johnson gave up prospecting for gold to whip 40 acres of timberland near here into a farm, he remembered the legendary achievements of Paul Bunyan and his blue ox, Babe, Johnson bought a team of oxen.

A veteran of the Spanish-American and World wars, he named them Franklin Roosevelt and John Garner—in honor, he says, of the two men he credited for the soldiers' benefits that helped him pay for his land.

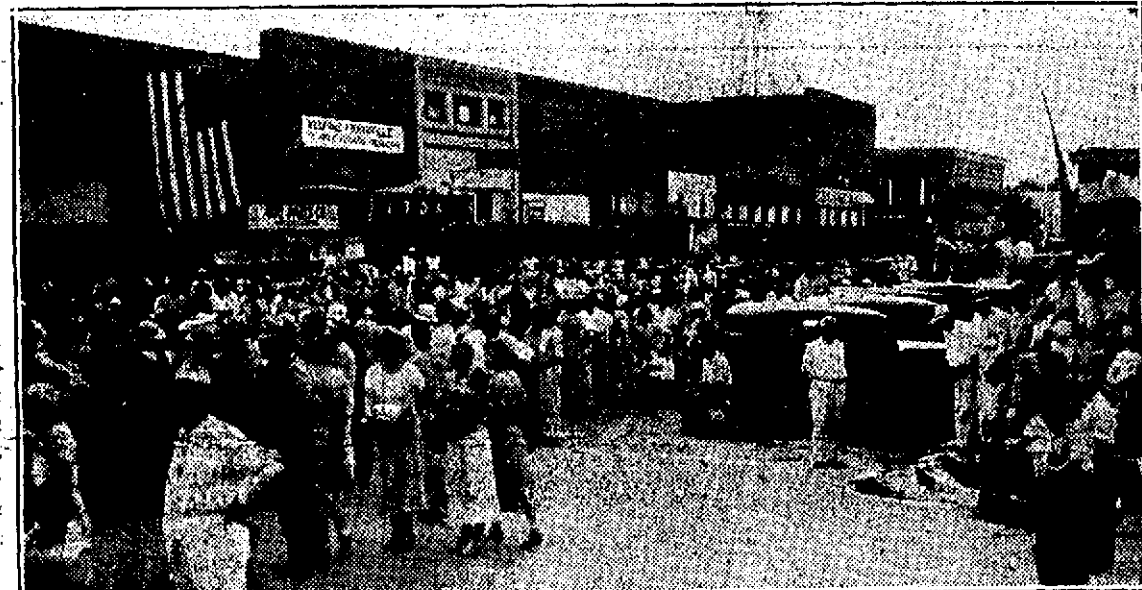

Though Bunyan is reputed to have dug a tunnel in a single day with Babe, Johnson with Franklin and John has spent three years clearing half his land and hauling in logs for his cabin and two sturdy barns.

Johnson learned to manage oxen on an Indiana farm half a century ago and further developed this ability with the army in the Philippines. An ox may be a bit stubborn, he says, but on the whole is better company than most men.

Between jobs and log snaking Johnson hitches his oxen in a yoke his grandfather made and uses them to pull an occasional stray automobile from a mud hole on the stumpy-studded road between his farm and McLeary. He says they will do more work on less food than any horse.

Franklin is tall and rangy, John shorter and calmer. Johnson attaches no political significance to the fact they had a "falling out" on the range last winter and no longer can be left alone in the same field for fear they will gore each other with their 15-inch horns.

Beautiful Queen and Her Maids Make Nashville's Peach Festival a Success

Ten thousand visitors thronged Nashville last Wednesday when the Highland District, home of the world's largest elberta orchard, celebrated the Peach Festival.

RIGHT—The Star's camera catches Miss Evelyn Ligon, 16, of Dierks, in the regal attire of Festival Queen, a few minutes after her selection from the nine competing maids of the Highland Peach District.

LEFT TOP—The nine Highland District Maids seated on the stage of Nashville High School auditorium, photographed from across the footlights. The camera shows all but one of the nine, missing only the girl on the extreme left. Second from the left, and the first face showing in the picture, is Miss Ligon, a few minutes before the announcement of the judges' decision which made her Festival Queen. The eight other maids on the stage are: Miss Evorie Kirkham, Delight; Miss Dorothy Regan, Glenwood; Miss Virginia Hargrove, Lockesburg; Miss Doris Carroll, Murfreesboro; Miss Ann Cagle, Nashville; Miss Frances City, Ozan;

—Photos by Hope Star

Miss Margaret Cowling, Sardis, and Miss Vivian Beck, Washington.

LEFT BOTTOM—An outdoor "shot" of the street crowds in Nashville last Wednesday, made shortly before 6 p. m. when the parade was about to begin. Note the corner sidewalk at the extreme right, jammed with humanity—and in the street-gutter below still stands the water from a deluging rain which beat down on the city during mid-afternoon, delaying both the coronation of the Queen and the starting of the street parade.

MEN OF TOMORROW

The Story of The Star's Carrier Boys—This One Is Pat Reed, of Hope

I am Dan F. Reed, generally known as Pat.

I am 14 years old, the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Reed of 502 South Hervey street, Hope, Ark.

I have been working for the Hope Star for the past four months, carrying the route which covers South Walnut, East Fifth, St. Paul, South Laurel, Shover and numerous alleys and short streets in the negro settlement. My route starts at 317 South Walnut and winds up at 623 South Hazel.

A few of my best subscribers are Mrs. W. A. Sutton, Mrs. J. W. Davis, Mrs. W. E. Cason, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Lila Watson and Edgingtons, all of these and many more are fine folks and treat me fine.

Dealing with the public teaches me to be prompt, considerate, accurate and business-like.

—Photo by the Star

PAT REED.

Asks Liquor Men to Back Bureaus

Senator Dillon Urges Their Support of Administration's Choice

LITTLE ROCK.—A letter, which Senator Edward B. Dillon of Little Rock has addressed "to all retail liquor dealers of this state," indicates that the will be asked to support any candidate for governor whom the Futrell administration may favor.

The senator, author of the liquor tax act passed in 1935, made it clear that the Liquor Dealers association is preparing to take an active part in the primary campaign. A representative of the association will call on the dealers before August 11 to talk politics with them, the letter said.

Senator Dillon refused to say where the liquor dealers' support would go. "Let the folks guess," he said. "The letter which went from the senator to the liquor dealers follows: 'You perhaps know of my efforts in the Senate towards the Thorn Liquor Control Act, which was passed by the last legislature. It was not my efforts alone that brought about the enactment of this law, but I sponsored it through the senate. My purpose in assisting in the enactment of this law was to experiment in a new method in promoting temperance. Absolute prohibition was a failure. I feel that to disturb the law at this time would not be giving this experiment a fair trial, and I believe that it should be continued.'

The fact that you are in business now, and no doubt making a profit, is not due to any individual action, but to the concerted efforts of all the members of the legislature with the unqualified approval of the present administration. Regardless of the efforts of the members of the legislature, I did not see Governor Futrell, you would not be enjoying the profits from your present business. You are, therefore, deeply indebted to the present administration. 'I write you this letter to ask you,

Roundtable Bill at Rotary Meet

Assignments Handed Members for Brief Talks at Friday Noon

Rotarians attending luncheon Friday noon at Hotel Barlow created their own program.

Directed by the Rev. Fred R. Harrison, in charge of program, the members spoke briefly on various Rotary International topics, which had been outlined to the men slips of paper after the luncheon meeting began.

With Ed McCordie presiding, the club heard weekly programs outlined for the month of August by the Rev. Mr. Harrison, who, with Mrs. Harrison, will leave this week-end for a tour of Texas, to be gone during most of the month.

Arab-Jewish Fight Troubling French

Native Unrest Spreads Also to French Section of North Africa

PARIS, France.—(AP)—The French government, combating Algerian agitation of a potentially revolutionary nature, has extended a two-fold frontier to natives of its North African territory—suppression of violence per se, benefits if peace is restored.

Governor General Georges Le Beau carried the alternative back to Algiers after a flying trip to Paris during which he conferred with the chiefs of the leftist People's Front.

Acknowledging "agitation of an essentially political character," officials said "useful dispositions were taken to suppress all public disorder."

Bulletins

BERLIN, Germany.—(AP)—In a colorful setting of pomp and circumstance Chancellor Hitler Saturday formally proclaimed the 11th Olympic Games opened at 5:16 p. m. (European time). Twenty-two nations besides the Germans gave the Nazi salute while passing the official stands.

MONTPELIER, Vt.—(AP)—President Roosevelt visited Saturday to the mill-dollars Wrightsville dam on the Whitehall river near here and declared to newspapermen about his car, "That is a very excellent illustration of a co-operation between government and state in bondfoggling." The president is on a personal tour of New England flood control projects before returning to Hyde Park, N. Y.

Italian Colonists Pour Into Ethiopia

100,000 Expected to Take Advantage of Government's Program

ROME, Italy.—(AP)—"Go south, young man!" So Fascism, paraphrasing Groucho Marx, is advising young Italians who would carve themselves a place in the sun of a new Roman empire.

Conquerors are becoming settlers in Ethiopia at the rate of hundreds every day, according to official sources, as Italy's occupying armies are demobilized in the field.

Pennants and the unemployed of city slums are lining up for a figurative frontier rush for the promised land like that which sent thousands of Americans rumbling westward over the prairies 80 years ago.

Three thousand foreign service posts in East Africa, the government advertises, are open to persons over 18 with the equivalent of an American grade school education or better, who

Farm Boy Is Held in Shirley Threat

Lad of 16 Admits Writing Kidnap Note to Father of Baby Film Star

OMAHA, Neb.—(AP)—R. A. All, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation here, said that Sterling Walrod Powell, 16, a farm boy arrested at his home one mile south of Grant, Neb., late Friday has confessed to writing an extortion letter asking $25,000 of George F. Temple, father of Shirley Temple, juvenile screen actress.

Powell was being taken by agents of the Omaha bureau to North Platte, Neb., where All said he will be arraigned before United States Commissioner A. F. Streitz.

All said that when confronted with the letter, Powell admitted writing it but denied he ever went to the spot he had named to look for the money.

He and his agents, All said, were unable to establish a motive for the youth's action. They described him as small for his age, and said his parents, who have lived on a farm near Grant for the last four years, were in comfortable financial circumstances. Powell was a sophomore last year in the Grant High School. All said the youth told him he was not an ardent movie fan.

The arrest came after weeks of work by operatives from the Omaha office. Its envelope missing, the letter, written on common stationery in long-hand, was turned over to Bureau of Investigation agents in Los Angeles immediately after it was discovered.

All related. Through the bureau's Washington laboratories, he disclosed the stationery was traced to a drugstore in Grant.

A New Species

LORAIN, Ohio.—(AP)—Dr. H. A. Sifling went out golfing and made a new kind of birdie. Shooting from the rough, he lifted his ball into a bird's nest in a tree.

Both Sides Strike in War in Spain

Rebels March on Capital—Government Hits at Revolt Centers

MADRID, Spain.—(AP)—Troops of the rebellion announced Friday night they were marching against Madrid and it appeared the crucial battle in the two-week-old revolt was near.

Broadcasts from Fascist stations asserted that four columns of rebel forces were converging on the city. One was within artillery range, 15 miles, ready to hurl shell at loyalist defenders.

One Fascist column, headed by General Herrera, was said to have occupied El Pardo, 15 miles from the capital. Another, under Lieutenant Colonel Garcia, was at El Mola, 25 miles away. The third, under Colonel Sandoval, captured Navacerrada, 20 miles distant, radio reports said.

There was little resistance, the radio dispatches said. Loyalists were said to be withdrawing carefully. Rebels asserted the government suffered lack of properly trained aviation officers, was poorly equipped with bombs, and that most planes were piloted by sergeants and privates.

111 Americans Leave

The latest recaptulation of Americans here Friday night revealed 74 still

German-Japanese Pact Is Suspected by Soviet's Press

Meanwhile, New Crisis Appears Between Italy, Spanish Republic

FRANCE IS ANXIOUS

Socialist Government Fears Fascist-Radical Conflict in Europe

MOSCOW, Russia.—(AP)—The existence of a German-Japanese military alliance, or progress in that direction, as a challenge to the Soviet Union and world peace, was discussed openly in the press Saturday on the anniversary of the declaration of war with Germany.

Designating Germany, Japan, Italy and Poland as enemies of peace, the newspapers asserted that "war is very near."

Preparations for war "never have been so open, rapid, or provoking," said the Soviet press.

Spanish-Italian Crisis

CASABLANCA, French Morocco.—(AP)—Gen. Victor Denain, chief of France's North African air force, took over investigation Friday night of four Italian planes believed en route to aid Spanish rebels.

Eleven Italian Air Force officers in civilian clothes were under arrest. They were forced down on the coast in two big tri-motored ships. A third plane crashed and burned, killing three and seriously injuring two of its occupants. The fourth plane was reported lost at sea.

The Italian fliers forced down at Oujda denied they were sent by the Rome government and said they were dispatched by a private aviation firm.

Uniforms Dropped

A report from Rabat, said knapsacks dropped by the plane, which flew low, contained uniforms of the Spanish Foreign Legion. Officials seized the uniforms as well as a note instructing the aviators to put on the uniforms and say they were Legionnaires who had lost their way on a scouting flight.

The planes were believed members of a convoy of six en route to Melilla, Spanish Morocco stronghold of Gen. Francisco Franco. They took off from Delmas Field, South Sardinia, supposedly on an attempt nonstop flight to the rebel town.

(An authoritative source at Rabat reported that 14 planes similar in type to the Italian machines which came down in French territory arrived at Nador, Spanish Morocco.)

Machine gun, a bomb thrower, several cases of machine gun cartridge belts, hand grenades and Italian ammunition were found in the planes.

Italian Colors Painted Over

One plane, out of fuel, alighted near the mouth of the Moulouya river. The second ship, circling overhead, dropped a message and knapsack of the Spanish Foreign Legion and finally landed. Italian colors on wings and fuselage were blotted out with paint.

At Rabat authorities searched a small sailboat with 34 Spanish refugees from Huéla. The ship carried several old rifles and revolvers and 100 cartridges. Refugees said they fled when rebels seized the city.

France Alarmed

PARIS, France.—(AP)—The French government, fearing the Spanish revolt might set off a new world war, announced Friday night it would remain neutral in Spain's internal struggle.

Foreign Minister Yvon Delbos announced in the Chamber of Deputies that "France will not mix in the politics of other countries."

However, France was investigating appearance in Morocco of Italian planes, which French authorities there said were believed carrying arms for Spanish rebels. It was feared this incident could lead to war between "Fascist and anti-Fascist blocs" of

(Continued on page two)

SPEAKING SCHEDULE

Hempstead County
Current speaking engagements in the town of Hempstead county candidates are:
Saturday, 10 a. m.—Ozan.
Monday, August 3, 10 a. m.—Finney Grove.
Tuesday, 10 a. m.—McCaskill.
Wednesday, 10 a. m.—Blevins.
Thursday, 10 a. m.—DeAnn.
Friday, 10 a. m.—Bingen.
Saturday, 10 a. m.—Washington.
Monday, August 10, 10 a. m.—Hope, windup of tour.
Nevada County
Speaking in Nevada county are:
Monday, August 3, 8 p. m.—Sutton.
Tuesday, 8 p. m.—Bodew.
Wednesday, 8 p. m.—Willisville.
Thursday, 8 p. m.—Bumet.
Friday, 8 p. m.—Waterloo.
Monday, August 10, 8 p. m.—Prescott, windup of tour.

Justice, Deliver Thy Herald From False Report!
Published every week-day afternoon by Star Publishing Co., Inc.
C. E. Palmer & Alex. H. Washburn, at The Star building, 212-214 South Walnut street, Hope, Arkansas.

C. E. PALMER, President
ALEX. H. WASHBURN, Editor and Publisher
Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Hope, Arkansas Under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Definition: "The newspaper is an institution developed by modern civilization to present the news of the day, to foster commerce and industry, through widely circulated advertisements, and to furnish that check upon government which no constitution has ever been able to provide."—Col. R. McCormick.

Subscription Rate (Always Payable in Advance): By city carrier, per week 15c; per month 65c; one year $6.50. By mail, in Hempstead, Nevada, Howard, Miller and Lafayette counties, $3.50 per year; elsewhere $6.50.

Member of The Associated Press: The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

National Advertising Representatives: Arkansas Dailies, Inc., Memphis, Tenn., Sterick Bldg.; New York City, 309 Lexington; Chicago, Ill., 75 E. Wacker Drive; Detroit, Mich., 339 Woodward Ave.; St. Louis, Mo., Star Bldg.

Charges on Tributes, Etc.: Charges will be made for all tributes, cards of thanks, resolutions, or memorials, concerning the departed. Commercial newspapers hold to this policy in the news columns to protect their readers from a deluge of space-taking memorials. The Star disclaims responsibility for the safe-keeping or return of any unsolicited manuscripts.

Your Baby's Health

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

A study of the reasons for lying, given by children, indicates that the greatest cause is fear. Next comes a lively imagination; third, fantasy and imitation; and fourth, weakness of will.

A parent interested in controlling lying on the part of the child must learn to distinguish conscious and deliberate lying for a definite purpose from the lie that is told just as play. Parents also should remember that it is better if they themselves always are truthful before the child.

Never exaggerate the importance of lying in the child's imagination, by punishing him too severely or by excessive questioning to get the truth. Under such circumstances, the child will attach far too much significance to what can be accomplished by varying from the truth.

Children have more imagination than do adults, and a good imagination is helpful toward success in life. Too often the imagination of the child may be repressed because the parent himself is not sufficiently imaginative.

Remember that a child is born—neither honest or dishonest. It must learn to evaluate its experiences and to reflect them in its own way.

An interesting story is told about a mother who was disappointed because

Your Children

By Olive Roberts Barton

Don't forget the book department when you are shopping for vacation needs. Bathing suits and lotions won't be of the least interest to the children on rainy days, or when they are all fed up with scenery. How many mothers sigh regretfully then, that they wish they had thought of some books to take along, the average nook-in-the-woods being so far from libraries, you see.

To mention all of the excellent books for children, it would be necessary to go in for poundage in a metropolitan telephone directory; but there are always some new ones, and good ones, so this will help out those mothers who are on the look-out for the latest and best in children's literature.

For Eight and Under
For youngsters up to eight (actually there is no age to a book) there are: "Elephant Twins," by Inez Hogan, (Dutton); "Over in the Meadow," by John Anthony Hartell, (Harper); "Billy and Blaze," by C. W. Anderson, (Macmillan); "How Percival Caught the Tiger," by Percival Struthers, (Holiday House); "A Day at School," by Agnes McCready, (Dutton); "The Wump and the Woodie," Assembled, (Harper); "The King of the Hill," by Willie Fogarty, (Dutton); "Buttons—Six Gray Stories," by Geo. and Doris Haiman, (Macmillan); "The Farm on the Hill," by Madeline D. Horn, (Scribner); "Stop, Look and Listen," by B. and E. Hader, (Longmans); "Old John," by Martin Cregan, (Macmillan).

More and more we are weaving music and art, crafts and hobbies into the story interest. There is, for instance, "The Peter Rabbit Music," composed around the delightful little stories known to all of us, as refreshing as when Beatrix Potter first immortalized Peter himself, (Warne). And Flavia Gage's "Sing a Song of the Seasons," (Coward); "Over in the Meadow," (Hartell).

For Older Children
From eight to anywhere are these: "Jock the King's Pony," by Rowland Johns, (Dutton); "Circus Boy," by Harriet F. Bunn, (Macmillan); "More Things a Boy Can Make," by Jos. Leeming, (Appleton-Century); "Now for Creatures," by Shelby Shackelford, (Scribner); "Back to Treasure Island," by H. A. Calahan, (Vanguard); "Whistler's Van," by Iwain Jones, (Viking); "The Sails of the Atlantic," by Lis Anderson, (Dutton); "The Donkey Goes Visiting," by Patricia Lynch, (Dutton); "A Parade of Ancient Animals," by H. O. Whitnall, (Crowell); "Ol' Paul the Mighty Logger," by Glen Rounds, (Holiday House); "Marsh Island Mystery," by Maristone Chapman, (Appleton-Century); "Little House on the Prairie," by Laura Ingalls Wilder, (Harper).

Over twelve years, but not necessarily, "Book of Natural Wonders," by Ellison Hawks (Loring and Messy); "World's Messenger," by Hanson Hart Webster, (Houghton); "Head Wind," by Daniel Hawthorne, (Macmillan); "For Keeps," by Gertrude E. Mallette, (Doubleday, Dorin); "Liberty or Death," by Alex. Key, (Harper); "Beowulf," by Ernest Lewis, (Dutton).

More and more we are weaving music and art, crafts and hobbies into the story interest. There is, for instance, "The Peter Rabbit Music," composed around the delightful little stories known to all of us, as refreshing as when Beatrix Potter first immortalized Peter himself, (Warne). And Flavia Gage's "Sing a Song of the Seasons," (Coward); "Over in the Meadow," (Hartell).

Over twelve years, but not necessarily, "Book of Natural Wonders," by Ellison Hawks (Loring and Messy); "World's Messenger," by Hanson Hart Webster, (Houghton); "Head Wind," by Daniel Hawthorne, (Macmillan); "For Keeps," by Gertrude E. Mallette, (Doubleday, Dorin); "Liberty or Death," by Alex. Key, (Harper); "Beowulf," by Ernest Lewis, (Dutton).

Over twelve years, but not necessarily, "Book of Natural Wonders," by Ellison Hawks (Loring and Messy); "World's Messenger," by Hanson Hart Webster, (Houghton); "Head Wind," by Daniel Hawthorne, (Macmillan); "For Keeps," by Gertrude E. Mallette, (Doubleday, Dorin); "Liberty or Death," by Alex. Key, (Harper); "Beowulf," by Ernest Lewis, (Dutton).

have been stars of her pictures. "Nana," vehicle for the Star debut in 1934, was Miss Arner's last directorial job prior to the current "Craig's Wife."

She directed "Sarah and Son," the only picture made almost entirely by women. Stars, author (Zoe Akins), director, supervisor (Elsie Janis), business manager, and cutter all were women. The camera was operated by a man, and the producer was Al Kaufman.

Hollywood's only woman director is keenly alert Dorothy Arzner, above.

Hard-Hearted Women
Ruth Chatterton had to sing a lullaby to that picture, and Kaufman assigned a song-writer to produce one. He wrote an ordinary, elemental lullaby, full of go-to-sleep-my-precious, and the stars are watching-over you stuff.

Kaufman, for whom he first played and sang it, was entranced. B. P. Schulberg, the president went into raptures. Other male executives were left misty-eyed by the saccharin hush-abye. The composer sang it again for the studio manager, and twice for parties of visiting exhibitors.

Finally he was ordered to the sound

LETTERS to the Editor

Opposed to Robinson
Editor The Star: I would like to say a word in regard to this election that is coming up for Mr. Joe T. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson has never voted for the small farmer in his life. He has voted for himself or Wall Street. When he voted for the plow-up in 1933 Joe T. was in on it heavier than any man in this county, owning plenty of cotton land himself. So, Mr. Small Farmer, don't vote for Joe T.

Mr. Robinson voted to pay the railroads a cash bonus in 1920; also, the factories and contractors—but for the ex-service men he voted "no."

In 1930 he voted "no" for payment of the first half of the so-called bonus—but it was not a bonus, for a bonus comes in your pay check.

They voted to the man that made himself a target to be shot at, a dollar and ten cents for over-sea service, and one dollar here in this country. On the other half of the bonus Robinson voted "no" on June 17, 1932, and again in 1933-34-35. But this year Mr. Robinson voted to pay it, for he is trying to buy votes. Now Mr. Robinson thinks he can buy a few votes by paying a just debt, but here is one ex-soldier on whom he can not do a stunt like that.

Now comrades of the war of 1898, Robinson has voted against you every time he could. He does not want you to leave a thing. What the vet needs is more vet outfits like S. A. V., the V. F. W., the D. A. V. and the A. L. More power to them.

I did my bit in Company "C," 2nd Supply Train. Yours truly, JOE T. BRUCE

July 31, 1936
Hope Route Three.

stage to sing it for the Misses Chatterton, Akins, Janis, Arzner, and numerous other ladies. They paid not the slightest attention to the lullaby, but Miss Akins' male mastiff was so affected that he howled. Nobody tried to silence the dog, and after half a dozen beginnings on the song he was still howling.

Finally the composer closed the

Knows His Peas; Watch His Eyes

It's another "big wind" year, with the presidential campaign in full blast, but all the blowing isn't being done by politicians, as you can tell by the expression on the face of Robert "Tornado" Potteiger. Robert is the champion pea shooter of Reading, Pa. It sounds exaggerated, but reports are that he blew so hard to win the title that all his shirt buttons popped off and his eyes crossed.

piano with a bang. "I have sung this lousy ditty for everybody on the lot from the president to the gatekeeper," said he. But I'll be "pea" if I'm going to sing it for "pea" dog! He walked out of the studio and hasn't been back since.

It has been estimated that losses of milk bottles by theft and breakage in London alone cost more than $62,000 annually.

The Standings

SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION

| Club        | W. | L. | Pct. |
|-------------|----|----|------|
| Atlanta     | 68 | 39 | .636 |
| Nashville   | 63 | 45 | .583 |
| Chattanooga | 53 | 55 | .515 |
| Birmingham  | 54 | 51 | .514 |
| New Orleans | 49 | 55 | .471 |
| Little Rock | 47 | 55 | .460 |
| Knoxville   | 42 | 61 | .404 |
| Memphis     | 42 | 62 | .400 |

Friday's Results
Little Rock 6, New Orleans 5.
Memphis 5, Birmingham 2.
Atlanta 5, Chattanooga 1.
Knoxville 5, Nashville 4.

| Club         | W. | L. | Pct. |
|--------------|----|----|------|
| Chicago      | 53 | 36 | .597 |
| St. Louis    | 50 | 38 | .568 |
| New York     | 53 | 45 | .541 |
| Pittsburgh   | 51 | 46 | .526 |
| Cincinnati   | 47 | 48 | .495 |
| Boston       | 45 | 52 | .464 |
| Philadelphia | 38 | 58 | .396 |
| Brooklyn     | 35 | 62 | .361 |

Friday's Results
Pittsburgh 10, Boston 5.
St. Louis 8, Brooklyn 6 (10 innings).
Chicago 3, New York 1.
Cincinnati 12-2, Philadelphia 2-7.

| Club         | W. | L. | Pct. |
|--------------|----|----|------|
| New York     | 65 | 34 | .657 |
| Cleveland    | 57 | 43 | .570 |
| Boston       | 54 | 46 | .540 |
| Detroit      | 52 | 46 | .526 |
| Chicago      | 51 | 46 | .523 |
| Washington   | 49 | 50 | .495 |
| St. Louis    | 44 | 53 | .451 |
| Philadelphia | 42 | 60 | .412 |

Friday's Results
Boston 7, Chicago 4.
St. Louis 12, Philadelphia 4.
Detroit 8, Washington 2.
New York 11, Cleveland 7.

The normal life of a mosquito is two or three months.

Russia Foresees

(Continued from page one)

European nations. Delbos declared: "France will ask at Geneva for a simultaneous reduction of armaments, beginning with air armaments."

He said France was trying "with all its strength to prevent an apparent or real division in Europe in opposed blocs."

"Any idea of a crusade, whether it be for or against democracy, Fascism or Bolshevism, is rejected by us," he declared.

Delivery of Arms Denied
Asserting it had been charged the French government had delivered arms to the Madrid regime, Delbos said:

"Such an allegation is untrue. We could do it without violating international law, since it (the Madrid administration) is a regular government, but we do not wish to do so in order to furnish no pretext for international complications."

"We furnished no arms to Spain because of the laws of humanity and because we wanted to provide no excuse to those who wished to help the insurgents."

The Madrid government, Delbos declared, "is one whose legitimacy cannot be contested." He added, "It is a great friend of France."

(Continued from page one)

living at the embassy, 101 in their own homes, and 111 evacuated to the coast. The last six who desired to go left for the coast Friday night.

Miners bolstered loyalist troops for a new siege of the Northern city of Oviedo, but delayed direct attack to spare the city further damage. The city had changed hands at least twice during heavy fighting of the past three days.

Catalan troops thrust at Zaragoza, important Northern city held by rebels, in a series of fierce encounters. "Many casualties" were reported.

Reports from Jaca said that loyal forces had demanded surrender of Cerdeba and that Colonel Yagut, chief of the rebels within, had committed suicide. Loyalist entrance into Cerdeba shortly was predicted as rebels were deserting strategic points in the city.

Reports from Navalperal said a loyalist column headed by Colonel Mangader routed a rebel force, killing 63 and taking a number of prisoners.

Government radio announcements reported heavy desertions of both officers and soldiers on all rebel fronts. Leonardo Santos Morales, Portuguese newspaperman who is a political exile from his own country, died of wounds while reporting for a Spanish newspaper.

Documents confiscated at Barcelona were said to have revealed the rebels planned two stages of the revolution. To set up a military dictatorship headed by General Sanjurjo.

To establish "a unified" government with Jose Galvo Sotelo as president. Members of the cabinet were to include Gen. Francisco Franco as secretary of war, Jose Maria Gil Robles in the interior, and Gen. Emilio Mola as head of police.

Calvo Sotelo was slain by Leftists in Madrid just before the outbreak of the revolution. Sanjurjo died in a plane accident.

Ecuador's Mount Chimborazo is higher than Mount Everest. Sea level near Mount Chimborazo is 3 1/2 miles higher than it is in the latitude of Mount Everest.

Political Announcements

The Star is authorized to announce the following as candidates subject to the action of the Hempstead county Democratic primary election Aug. 11, 1936:

For Representative
EMORY A. THOMPSON
LUKE MONROE
HUGH D. CLARK
JOHN F. VESBY

For Sheriff & Collector
FRANK WARD

For County & Probate Judge
RUFFIN WHITE
FRANK RIDER

For County Treasurer
CLIFFORD FRANKS
E. M. STEPHENS
MISS LILLIE MIDDLEBROOKS

For Circuit Clerk
ARTHUR C. ANDERSON
RALPH BAILEY
W. A. FORMBY

Asks Liquor Men
(Continued from page one)

in appreciation of the efforts the exerted in the passage of the liquor law and the judgment and fairness Governor Futrell in its approval, withhold any affiliation with any candidate for governor until a personal representative of the Liquor Dealers' association calls upon you to discuss with you this representative will appear upon you within the next day or so to talk with you personally regarding the candidate that has been approved by our association, and for whom our association solicits your support."

(Continued from page one)

living at the embassy, 101 in their own homes, and 111 evacuated to the coast. The last six who desired to go left for the coast Friday night.

Miners bolstered loyalist troops for a new siege of the Northern city of Oviedo, but delayed direct attack to spare the city further damage. The city had changed hands at least twice during heavy fighting of the past three days.

Catalan troops thrust at Zaragoza, important Northern city held by rebels, in a series of fierce encounters. "Many casualties" were reported.

Reports from Jaca said that loyal forces had demanded surrender of Cerdeba and that Colonel Yagut, chief of the rebels within, had committed suicide. Loyalist entrance into Cerdeba shortly was predicted as rebels were deserting strategic points in the city.

Reports from Navalperal said a loyalist column headed by Colonel Mangader routed a rebel force, killing 63 and taking a number of prisoners.

Government radio announcements reported heavy desertions of both officers and soldiers on all rebel fronts. Leonardo Santos Morales, Portuguese newspaperman who is a political exile from his own country, died of wounds while reporting for a Spanish newspaper.

Documents confiscated at Barcelona were said to have revealed the rebels planned two stages of the revolution. To set up a military dictatorship headed by General Sanjurjo.

To establish "a unified" government with Jose Galvo Sotelo as president. Members of the cabinet were to include Gen. Francisco Franco as secretary of war, Jose Maria Gil Robles in the interior, and Gen. Emilio Mola as head of police.

Calvo Sotelo was slain by Leftists in Madrid just before the outbreak of the revolution. Sanjurjo died in a plane accident.

Ecuador's Mount Chimborazo is higher than Mount Everest. Sea level near Mount Chimborazo is 3 1/2 miles higher than it is in the latitude of Mount Everest.

WANTED

Scrap Iron, Metals, Batteries, Radiators, Sacks, Paper, Dry Bones and Canned Rags.

P. A. Lewis Motor Co.
Used Parts—Used Cars—Supplies
Now Located
304 E. Second St. Hope, Ark.

WASH SUITS

Properly Laundered
50c
Nelson-Huckins

RESORT HOTEL

BEGIN HERE TODAY
ANN HAMILTON, pretty young secretary in a large business office, goes to a travel agency to make plans for her two-week vacation.

BILL WARE, travel bureau employee, tries to persuade her to go to Lake Racine. Because Ann is rushed for time, Bill offers to come to her home and finish planning the trip. He comes that evening. Ann notices for the first time that he is a good-looking young man.

She finally decides to go to Lake Racine. Bill tells her he is going there, too, but their vacation does not come at the same time.

Impulsively Bill asks her to go to a movie. Ann goes.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER III

ON the way to Lake Racine Ann felt that adventure was in the air. What was to happen next? She was alone, and the sight of pleasant woods and broad fields made her forget the broiling streets of the city she had left behind. A record heat wave was in progress, but already, only a few hours out, she could feel cooling breezes.

Rather she sensed the cool mountain air of Lake Racine, which lay ahead of her, like a glistening blue jewel in the midst of soaring green mountains.

She thought of the vacation presents, snugly wrapped, in her luggage. She thought of the smiling faces that had seen her off at the station; of her roommate, Alice, who was at the seashore; of the girls in the office who were awaiting their turns at taking vacations. There was Bill Ware who, at the last minute, had turned up at the station to say goodbye.

The business details of the trip had cemented her friend hip with Bill and she had had two dates with him. Once they had gone up the river on the bus with the other heat-ridden people, looking for some cool air. Another time they had taken the excursion boat on the river. Bill was a good sort, she thought idly.

But then she thought of her new blue bathing suit, of the evening dress—a cardinal's red—which she had picked up at a Tuesday morning sale for almost nothing. She thought of the amiable hostess at the Glenwood Inn where she was to stay, of young men like knights in shining armor, of tennis balls poised in a hand, or guava jelly (one of her going-away gifts), of the cow-horn on a long, low-slung roadster she had watched racing the train part of the morning, of electric fans, of speedboats on water, and of the travel book Alice had given her.

BUT when she changed trains at River Junction, and found herself once more on the dinky little mountain train which poked its way up among the high mountains on the narrow-gauge, Ann merely sat and watched the other vacationers. A feeling of loneliness suddenly beset her.

Everything was glamorous and still and beautiful. It sent Ann's spirit soaring, though at her heart was a sensation of loneliness.

The others seemed to have brought their friends with them. They called out familiarly from one end of the car to the other. "What are you doing tonight?" a boy called, quite unabashed, the length of the car. A pretty, slim girl seated with her mother at the opposite end, called back, "Walk around the lake?"

"Sure. See you when," the boy answered impudently.

In the seat opposite sat a boy and a girl completely engrossed in themselves. Ann wanted them to be honeymooners, so aloof they seemed, but once the girl pointed excitedly out the window, and said, "There's our cabin, John, darling, look! It hasn't changed a bit since last year." A cabin in the woods that belonged to them. A setting for their romance.

"Come on over to our camp." . . . "Let me know when you want to play tennis." . . . "Cock-tails at 6, and bring everybody we know!" Invitations flew all about her.

Suddenly Ann felt a vast uneasiness. She was a little alarmed. Suppose she shouldn't meet even one man she liked. The mere repetition of such thoughts made her feel forlorn and lonely—afraid.

In panic she wished she had gone to the seashore with Alice. She began to wish fervently that even Bill Ware had come along.

Ann said pertly, and the boy laughed.

"Women are a case!" he said. "But my girl works up here, too—in the dining room. We have a good time, just ourselves."

Ann said pleasantly, "I'll bet you do!" but her thoughts were far from complacent.

When they drove up in front of the little mountain inn, the porter took her bags in. Ann registered, and then took a quick turn about the lobby and game room, scanning the faces eagerly. With a feeling close to panic again, she recognized none of the pretty girls. And not a single man was to be seen!

It was some comfort when the hostess at the lodge came to greet her. Aimee was the same pleasant person Ann had known three years before, and talking to her was like greeting an old friend. There was an air of camaraderie about Aimee as she introduced Ann to some of the other girls.

AFTER dinner Ann wandered, alone, down to the boathouse, where she had spent many romantic moments three years before. The moon was shining down on the water.

It was a night filled with enchantment, as are all first nights in the mountains after a year spent in the teeming city. There were faint rippling waves on the lake. Everything was so glamorous and still and beautiful, so different from the noise and heat and dirt of the city. It was fantastic, unreal. It sent Ann's spirits soaring again, though at her heart was the gnawing sensation of loneliness. Out there on the water were young couples in canoes. A guitar strummed.

"The worst thing about the wide open spaces," Ann mused, "is that there are not enough people in them."

She was looking at the starlit heavens when, almost in front of her, she saw a man's body launch through the air in a straight dive to the lake. His head bobbed up, and he swam back to the dock at her feet with a powerful stroke. He lifted himself up on the boards, dripping water on her feet. Then he saw her standing there in the dark.

"Oh, I'm sorry!" he said. "The cold water on her stockings had made her cry out, but now she was laughing. "Oh, that's all right."

He towered above her with his broad shoulders and trim figure of a crew man. "Are you a guest at the hotel?" he asked.

When she nodded, he said lazily, "I'm the local boatman, Ralph. Did you want a boat?"

"I'm afraid I can't paddle my own canoe," she said. Then she was glad it was dark, because she knew she was blushing. Her remark seemed audacious.

"Oh, I'll take you out a while," he said. "I don't mind. I haven't got anything else to do anyway."

Ann laughed softly in the dark. What an extraordinary young man!

(To Be Continued)

JACK HOLT

OF BOONE COUNTY

for

Attorney General

A Young Man with

An Unusual Record

► 1928 At the age of 24, his own people regarded his ability, his character and his personality so highly that they elected him Prosecuting Attorney of his District.

► 1930 At the age of 26, the same people so regarded his record that he was re-elected without opposition.

► 1932 At the age of 28, for the second time and for a third term, he was re-elected Prosecuting Attorney

Society

Mrs. Sid Henry

Telephone 821

—Life is but a song.
Art is wandering long;
Yet to the wise her paths are ever fair,
And patience smiles, though Genius may despair.
Give us but knowledge, though by slow degrees,
And blend our toil with moments bright with ease.
Let friendships accents cheer our doubtful way,
And Love's pure planet lend its guiding ray.
Our fairy Art shall wear and angel's wings,
And life shall lengthen with the joy
it brings.—Selected.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Williams and Miss Evelyn Bryant have returned from a visit to the Texas Centennial in Dallas, Texas, and to Carlsbad Cavern in New Mexico.

Miss Nancy Donning, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Garner for the past week will leave Sunday for her home in Gallatin, Tenn.

Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Allison have returned from a visit with relatives and friends in Conway.

Mrs. James R. Henry and children have returned from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ligon and other relatives in Conway.

Miss Bessie Green has returned from a visit in Greenville, S. C., and Mon-treat, N. C.

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Christian church will meet at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thos. Kinser, South Main street, with Mrs. J. F. Porterfield as joint hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Garner, George
Stuart and Mrs. Dick Creed will leave Sunday for Dallas, where they will purchase fall stock for the George W.
Robison's store.

Mrs. C. C. Lewis was hostess on Friday afternoon to the members of the Friday Bridge club at her home on South Pine street. Bridge was played from two tables, with Mrs.
Comer Boyett scoring for the club and Mrs. J. M. Guthrie for the guests.
Following the game, a delightful ice course was served.

Miss Sophia Perkins Williams entertained a group of her young friends
Friday afternoon at her home on East Second street, celebrating her eighth birthday anniversary. A beautiful birthday cake decorated with eight glowing candles featured the decorations, and attractive favors were given to the guests. Following a number of interesting games, the cake was cut and served with ice cream.

The Young Mothers' Circle of the First Methodist church will meet with a watermelon feast at 4 o'clock, Monday afternoon at Fair park.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Abney of Marshall, Texas, are week end guests of Mrs. George Sandefur and George Sandefur Brandon.

The W. M. U., First Baptist church will hold its regular monthly business meeting at 4 o'clock, Monday afternoon at the church.

Misses Alma and Ruth Atkins have returned from a two week's visit with relatives and friends in Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wilson have as week end guests, Mrs. Hartwell Greer-son and little daughter, Carrie Jane of Prescott.

Mrs. William Brasher of Eastland, Texas, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith is spending the week end with her sister, Mrs. Brents McPherson and Mr.
McPherson in Little Rock.

Mrs. W. S. Atkins and daughters, Margaret and Martha left Saturday morning for a visit in Ashdown.

Health Program August 7 at Negro Cavalry Church

Syrrila Savage, negro woman WPA instructor, announced that a health program would be given at Cavalry Baptist church here Friday night,
August 7.

Besides the health program, there will be singing. She urged the public to attend. There will be no charges.

Revival Services on Saturday Night

Rev. Bill Couch's Brother Preaches at Fifth and Elm Streets

The Rev. Bill Couch announces that his twin preacher-brother will preach at the tent revival Saturday night.
Sunday night the Rev. Bill Couch is bringing a special message on the Second Coming of Christ, using for his subject, "The Signs of the Times in the Light of Bible Prophecy."

NEWS of the CHURCHES

HOPE GOSPEL TABERNACLE

Rev. Bert Webb, Pastor

Sunday services at the Tabernacle will be as usual, with Bro. and Sister Webb back from their vacation.

Brother Webb announces the following sermon subjects:
Morning service—"Son Remember." Evening service—"Old the River's too Muddy."

Considerable interest is being manifested in the Sunday School contest that is now on.

Come and enjoy Sunday School and the services of the day with us.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school at 9:45.
Young People's services at the usual hour.

Services will be held at the morning preaching hour, but in co-operating with Rev. Bill Couch who is holding a revival meeting at the corner of Fifth and Elm streets there will be no night service.

All are cordially invited to worship with us.

OUR LADY OF GOOD HOPE

9th Sunday After Pentecost

8:00 Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Discourse: "Christ found the Church to teach, govern, sanctify and save all men."

9:00 Benediction with the Most Blessed Sacrament.

9:15 Reading "Our Sunday Visitor."
St. Alphonsus Liguori, who has expressed his love for the Blessed Eucharist in books and songs, is honored by a commemoration in today's Mass.

The dedication of one of the three patriarchal churches in Rome, Our Lady of the Snows, is remembered next Wednesday. Popular tradition relates that the site for this church was designated by the Blessed Virgin through a snowfall, which descended upon this spot in the middle of summer.

First Friday devotions in honor of the Most Sacred Heart of Christ will be observed by a Low Mass at 7 next Friday morning, which will be followed by Benediction with the Most Blessed Sacrament.

FIRST METHODIST

Fred R. Harrison, Pastor

"A Sense of Sure Direction" will be the subject of the communion message by the Pastor at the morning congregational worship. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be solemnized at this service.

At the night service on the church lawn at 8 o'clock, the sermon subject will be, "Wanted: Men Who Stand."

A most important meeting of the Board of Stewards will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Every member is urged to be present to consider a forward step in our church work.

The young people and intermediates will meet in their Epworth League service at 7 o'clock.

Italian Colonists

(Continued from page one)

speak some colonial tongue and one or more of the principal European languages besides Italian.

Appointments are offered sanitary engineers, civil engineers, mining engineers, postal and telegraph employes, veterinarians, chemists, agricultural experts, experimenters and inspectors, police, surveyors, draftsmen, political police secret service agents interpreters and clerks.

In addition, the government urges other young men to seek careers in Ethiopia as representatives of private Italian firms. Terms of employment, even for day laborers, provide minimum wages, free food and lodging, paid passage to Africa, compulsory savings by the workers and fare home for one-third when the contract period has been served.

In the vanguard of settlers, of course, are the soldiers. Some 100,000 are expected to take advantage of the preference offered them in colonization plans. Since many of the East African troops were unemployed before they were called up for service, there is little incentive for them to return home if they can make a living in Ethiopia.

In preparation for the ministry of colonies, announced plan to begin sending emigrants from Italy to Africa by October, Italian agricultural researchers are combing the world this summer for new crops and methods to utilize on Ethiopian farms.

Marshal Daddio Graziani, viceroy of Ethiopia, already has begun a "back to work" program for natives. It was first applied to 250 war prisoners sent away by Marshal Graziani with several days' rations and this admonition:
"Those who are loyal will be happy;
those who betray will be destroyed!"

TOL-E-TEX
OIL COMPANY
Special-5 Gal. HI-Grade $1.50
Lube Oil Day and Night

PHONE 385
Hall Bros
CLEANERS & HATTERS

Use A
Hope Star
Want Ad
For Better
Results

Use A
Hope Star
Want Ad
For Better
Results

Use A
Hope Star
Want Ad
For Better
Results

Use A
Hope Star
Want Ad
For Better
Results

Use A
Hope Star
Want Ad
For Better
Results

Use A
Hope Star
Want Ad
For Better
Results

Use A
Hope Star
Want Ad
For Better
Results

Grilled in Blond Playgirl Killing

Believed to be the "Eddie" named frequently in the lurid diary of Audrey V. Vallette (Annabelle Blake), slain Chicago blond playgirl, Edward Freed, above, night club operator, was grilled by police, while authorities awaited surrender of his wife, Carmelia, said to have been in the victim's apartment the day of the shooting.

Sidney and Tracy at the Saenger

"Fury," a Dramatic Photoplay, Here on Sunday and Monday

Sylvia Sidney and Spencer Tracy are the brilliant co-stars of "Fury," showing at the Saenger Sunday and Monday only.

And in this powerful screen play, they give performances that will linger long in your memory!

The narrative, based on an original story by Norman Krasna, has to do with the tragic circumstances that separate two young lovers on the eve of their marriage. Tracy, as the man, is arrested as a kidnap suspect and apparently burned to death by a furious mob that storms and fires the prison in which he is held.

His life wrecked, and his mind twisted by the horror he has been through, he goes into hiding and contrives to have twenty-two of the mobsters convicted of his murder!

As a hard-hitting indictment of a national shame, "Fury" stands out as one of the fine pictures of the year, for its power lies in its altogether objective approach to the subject of mass lawlessness.

In addition to its social value, however, it is tremendous screen fare, acted with unusual skill by the co-stars and a cast that includes such sterling performers as Walter Abel, Bruce Cabot, Edward Ellis, Walter Brennan, George Walcott, Frank Albertson and many others.

See "Fury" if you want drama that "gets" you! It is a grand treat in the acting, photographic, directing and story departments—a personal triumph for Fritz Lang, who sends it forth as his first American picture.

Emmet

Mrs. Lige Mathews of Prescott is here visiting Mrs. Tom Snell.

Earl Dickerson and family of Lennord, Texas, has been visiting his mother here.

Ralph Beatty returned home after visiting in Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Orel Snell Randolph of Longview, Texas, is here visiting her ap-rents.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Riddick of Smackover visited Mrs. Tom Matthews here last week.

The Methodist meeting at this place closed Wednesday night. Bro. E. D.
Galloway of Magnolia has been helping in the meeting.

Miss Carrie Williams of Hope has been here visiting friends the past week.

Miss James Cofield of Centerville is here visiting her grandmother, Mrs.
Jim Snell.

Mrs. Taulk of Oklahoma City is here visiting her father Ernest Beatty.

Mrs. Olene Fee Roberson of Callafax
La., has been visiting her aunt, Mrs.
Will Garret.

Mack Garland has been in Hot Springs the past week in account of his health.

Mrs. Robert McFarland is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Earl Garret in Little Rock.

Prescott News in Brief

By DALE M'KINNEY

Fire destroyed the Benis planing mill here Friday evening before it could be extinguished. The fire is thought to have started from the mills waste pile nearby as it is kept burning all the time.

Bill Denman, candidate for U. S.
Senator, will speak here at the courthouse Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Denman has been campaigning in several other counties for the past two weeks before reaching his home town.

A large crowd of supporters is expected to be at the speaking here Saturday night.

A revival meeting will start at the Assembly of God Church in the City park here Sunday and continue through the week. Everyone is invited to attend.

"You're Another," Says Driver to Traffic Cop

LIMA, O.—(AP)—Deputy Sheriff R.
A. Harshe, doing traffic duty at night, stopped a truck, and reprimanded the driver because his tail light was out.
As he started back to his motorcycle, Harshe heard from the truck driver:
"Just a minute, there. The tail light on you motorcycle is out, too."
Harshe hastened to the county garage.

Arab-Jewish Fight

(Continued from page one)

brought forth who nand if the situation quiet.

Arabs Vs. Jews
"The government is, in fact, equally determined to assure maintenance of public order and to grant progressive ly to Algeria new legislation, inspired by a spirit of greater democracy," they declared.

The Algerian troubles, growing out of a long period of economic distress and racial animosity between Arabs and Jews, came to a head after the formation on June 4 of Socialist Premier Leon Blum's government.

Strikes spread from France to Africa.
The Arab population lined up with the nationalist right, while Jews in Algeria supported the left. The tightening tension culminated in isolated clashes.

Mayor Leads Agitation

In the center of the conflict was Abbe Lambert, tall, arive Mayor of Oran, northern city of 190,000 persons.
A leader of the nationalist movement, he claimed the support of thousands of natives for this program:

"We defend the tri-color flag and the 'Marseillaise.' We combat the 'Internationale' and the Red Flag."
On the economic side, the reforms announced here may extend to Algeria a broader program to stimulate agriculture and industry. On the political side, there may be an attempt to end the controversy over citizenship, according to Jews but denied by Arabs because they practice polygamy.

For YOUR HEALTH'S Sake
Use Pasteurized Milk
Babblin' Brook Dairies
C. E. CARTER, Distributor
Phone 41

INSURE NOW!
With ROY ANDERSON and Company
Fire, Tornado, Accident Insurance.

any old port in a storm!

On-again, Off-again, Gone-again Finnegan was a marble statue compared to the agile acrobats in the statehouse, who are leaping from candidate to candidate in a frantic, undignified attempt to find someone—anyone!—to stop the steady march of Carl Bailey to certain victory.

Did You Ever See Anything Like It?

They waited in feverish expectancy for the administration to "give the nod" to the favored candidate. The administration was slow in starting, but it is making up for it now. It is nodding in every direction, until the puppet candidates are dizzy and the people are nauseated.

"A horse, a horse, my kingdom for a horse!"

Futile Futrell's henchmen are in the position of the general who leaped upon his horse and rode off furiously in all directions. When one horse gets the heaves, they saddle up another. But for all their furious riding they haven't got anywhere... And they're about to run out of horses.

Overlooking a Bet

If they run out of candidates, there is always the Republican nominee for governor. Of course, he might turn them down.

Save Our Jobs!!!

It should be obvious now to everybody in the state that the administration overlords don't care a hoot about the qualifications of an aspirant for governor, and care even less for the wishes of the people the governor should serve.

They are interested solely in saving their jobs.

A straw man would do, if he could get the votes.

A wax dummy would suit them, if he could beat Carl Bailey.

It Can't Be Done!

The statehouse gang is now discovering what was obvious to the majority of the voters at the start. Straw men, dummies, and puppets who dance to their piping are not acceptable to the people.

The people are playing safe.

The people are for Carl Bailey, who has ALWAYS been for them.

Elect

CARL BAILEY

your GOVERNOR

—Advertisement.

ONE CENT SALE

Visit Our Annual One Cent Sale today for bargains in dresses.

LADIES'
Specialty Shop

Advice to Kodakers!

Why send your kodak films out of the city at the expense of waiting?
The special care we give in hand developing insures best prints without delay. Save 10c per roll on your films by buying from us.

THE Shipley Studio
Your Home Institution

SAENGER DELICIOUSLY COOL

SUN. and MON.
—ONLY—

TWO LOVERS...

VICTIMS OF MOB VIOLENCE!
Drama with a hundred-fold more power to reach your heart... because IT DID HAPPEN HERE!

Plus—
Paramount
News
—and—
Cartoon in Colors
"Greedily Humpty Dumpty"

WALTER ABEL
BRUCE CABOT
EDWARD ELLIS
WALTER BRENNAN

WANTED

SWEET GUM LOGS AND ROUND BLOCKS.
FORKED LEAF WHITE OAK AND COW OAK LOGS AND HEADING BOLTS No. 1 GRADE.
WHITE OAK, OVERCUP, POST OAK AND RED OAK HEADING BOLTS, OIL GRADE.
ASH BOLTS.

All Timber Scaled and Paid for Cash
When Delivered.

For Prices and Specifications Apply to HOPE HEADING COMPANY

Moslem Leader

HORIZONTAL

1. Fabulously wealthy Moslem. 2. One of his titles. 3. Sacred street. 4. Rival. 5. Widows. 6. Side of a roof. 7. Age. 8. Rhythmic. 9. To piece out. 10. Atmospheric conditions. 11. Assayers. 12. Silly. 13. Hair ornament. 14. The cheek. 15. Grain bin. 16. Flies. 17. Flower leaf. 18. Thimble. 19. To weigh down. 20. Wine vessel. 21. His won the English Derby.

ANSWER TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE

JOHN HOWARD PAYNE
MOO RISER LEO
WEBBINGS AMENDS
AN BIS AMA SE
NIRIS PHAROS N
DARES JOHN
RENDIS HOWARD
EYE PAYNE
SEEPS ACCEPTANT
AWE BROOD OST
AMERICAN AUTHOR

VERTICAL

1. Like. 2. Mirth. 3. Epilepsy. 4. Symptom. 5. Dwelling. 6. Maple shrub. 7. Almond. 8. Male ancestor. 9. List. 10. To seize. 11. To affirm. 12. Northeast. 14. Door rug. 16. To permit. 21. He is paid his. 22. To perch. 23. His are his pride. 27. Born. 28. Data. 29. To doze. 31. Frozen water. 32. Work of skill. 33. Inlet. 37. To bring legal proceedings. 38. Young dog. 40. Pole. 41. Oriental nurse. 42. Polynesian chestnut. 43. Imposture. 44. Lacrated. 45. Bones. 46. Hammer head. 47. Steals. 48. To prepare for publication. 49. Caterpillar hair. 52. To free. 54. Afternoon. 57. Senior.

Rocky Mound

Misses Fay and Byrd Pickard spent a few days last week with relatives of Bodew.

Mrs. Joe Goldwater and family of Shallowater, Texas arrived Tuesday for a visit with her mother and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Benton Huddleston and family of Hopewell called on Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Bearden Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rogers and little daughter Mary Alice spent Sunday with her parents of New Hope.

Mrs. Albert Smith was shopping in Hope Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Butler and Mrs. Alfred Bearden and children visited in Nevada county Sunday.

Mrs. Ora Goldwater and children spent Thursday with her sister Mrs. Dewey Bearden.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rogers called on her parents a while Tuesday night to see her sister Mrs. Carl Goldwater of Lubbock, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Von Arrington called on Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pickard a while Thursday evening and attended church at Shover Springs with them.

Quite a number from here attended church service at Shover Springs Thursday night.

MARKET PLACE

Remember, the more you tell, the quicker you sell.

1 time, 10c line, min. 30c

For consecutive insertions, minimum of 3 lines in one ad

3 times, 6c line, min. 50c

6 times, 5c line, min. 90c

25 times, 3 1/2c line, min. $2.71

(Average 5 1/2 words to the line)

NOTE—Want ads will be accepted with the understanding that the bill is payable on presentation of statement, before the first publication.

Phone 766

SERVICES OFFERED

The quality of our work pleases you.

THE HOME LAUNDRY

322 South Elm Phone 212-J

7-21-26tc

Signs, banners, tire covers, etc., painted. B. G. Waller, Phone 647-J or 709 night. 30-31p

Help Wanted—Female

TEACHER WANTED—Enroll immediately. Positions now open in western states. Primary, Intermediate, Advanced Grades, Commercial, Mathematics, History, English, Principals, etc. others. PROFESSIONAL PLACEMENT BUREAU, 411 Judson Bldg., Salt Lake City, Utah. 7-30-26tc

WANTED

WANTED: Colored family to work on farm by the month. F. L. Padgett, 3 miles South on the Lewisville Highway. 1-3t

WANTED TO BUY

WANTED TO BUY—Will buy watermelons every day. Pay cash day or night. Tom Carrel, 413 South Main Street. 7-13-26tp

WANTED TO BUY—Fresh Milch cow. Apply 615 West 4th St. 1-3tp

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Six room house. Suitable for two, three room apartments. Magnolia addition. Phone 1638-4 rings. J. E. Schooley. 28-3tc

FOR RENT—Furnished or unfurnished apartment with private bath close in. 413 South Main St. 31-3tp

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Fire-proof filing cabinet. 2 safes. 4 office desks. 2 display cases. 1 1/2 ft. Frigidaire home box. 1 large walk-in meat cooler. 7 sets of scales of various types and makes. 6 glass showcases of various types. 3 sausage mills. Different sizes. 1 electric National cash register. 1 check protector. 2 adding machines. Dalton and Burroughs. 1 ton White truck. 1 1/2 ton 1934 Chevrolet truck. 2 gas stoves. 2 tilting office chairs. 3 flat bed 4 wheel ware-house trucks. Other items too numerous to mention. I will trade for anything you might have. See Billy Duckett at the DUCKETT CHEMICAL CO. 5th and 2nd streets. 25-6tc

Legal Notice

Liquor Permit

Notice is hereby given that the Commissioner of Revenues of the State of Arkansas has issued a permit to Jett Williams Liquor Store to sell and dispense vinous or spirituous liquors for beverage at retail on the premises described as 108 South Walnut Street, Hope, Ark. Permit Number 327.

This permit issued on the 1st day of July, 1936, and expires on the 30th day of June, 1937.

Jett Williams Liquor Store July 25-Aug. 1.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

with ... Major Hoople

OUT OUR WAY

By WILLIAMS

OH, ICK! DIDN'T YUH KNOW THEY'VE JUST FOUND THET YUH GIT AS WET RUNNIN' AS YUH DO WALKIN' IN TH' RAIN?

WHY, YES, ICK! IT'S VERY SILLY TO RUN IN TH' RAIN!

AH, KNOW DAT, BUT AH DOAN THINK DAT SACK OB SUGAR AH LEF' OUT IN DE TRUCK DOES!

BUT, UNCLE AMOS, YOU SAID YOU'D SHOW ME HOW YOU WON FIRST PLACE IN THE FANCY DIVING EVENTS AT THE OLYMPIC GAMES, WHEN YOU DID FIVE SOMERSAULTS BACKWARDS, AN' GOT A WREATH FROM THE KING OF GREECE!

UM-M-FUTT-AH-UM—ALVIN, M'AD, THAT WAS BEFORE I SUFFERED A PAINFUL INJURY TO MY BACK, WHEN A JEALOUS RIVAL CONCEALED A ROCK IN THE BOTTOM OF A POOL INTO WHICH I WAS MAKING A 300-FOOT DIVE! KAF-KUMF-UM—

HE CAN DIVE OUT OF A TIGHT HOLE ANYTIME

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

It Won't Be Long, Now

By MARTIN

OH, SWELL! JUST TH' THING ....

THIS'S GONNA BE BETTERN I EXPECTED! YIPPEEE

I BETTER CALL BOOTS UP, NOW

HEY, BOOTS! Lissen, LAMBIE

??? GEE—WONDER WHAT FERDY HAS UP HIS SLEEVE? P—PP—ALL HE'D SAY WAS, HE'D BE RIGHT OVER! I'VE NEVER HEARD ANYONE SO EXCITED

ALLEY OOP

Right in the Middle

By HAMLIN

THIS COUNTRY MAKES NO HIT WITH ME—THERE'S LOTS OF PLACES ID RATHER BE—BUT ALLEY'S TRAIL LEADS THIS WAY, SO WE'LL HAF TA KEEP ON, COME WHAT MAY—

WUG!

KARF!

WASH TUBBS

Whole Hog—or Nothing

By CRANE

WHOA, THERE, STRANGER, I'M JIMMY SPUTTER, CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. DID YOU SAY YOU WERE GONNA START A BIG INDUSTRIAL PROJECT?

PROJECTS, YOUNG MAN—NOT PROJECT.

WHAT KINDA PROJECTS, MR.—ER—AH—?

C. HOLLIS WALLIS IS THE NAME, SIR. BUT, AS YET, I'M NOT READY TO REVEAL THE EXACT NATURE OF MY NEW VENTURE.

REST ASSURED, HOWEVER, THAT IT WILL BE THE MOST COLOSSAL UNDERTAKING THIS CITY EVER HAS WITNESSED—BIGGER THAN OIL, BIGGER THAN RANCHING, SIR, YOU ARE ON THE THRESHOLD OF A NEW ERA.

GOSH!

SAY, THAT'S GREAT, MR. WALLIS. MAYBE I CAN HELP YOU SELECT A BUILDING SITE. NOW, HERE'S A SWELL LOT THAT—

HUMPH! TOO SMALL. WHEN I'M READY, MY BOY, I'LL NEED HUNDREDS OF ACRES, POSSIBLY THOUSANDS.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Ossie's Full of Ideas

By BLOSSER

YOU HAVEN'T SEEN THE LAST OF JS!

SHALL I SASS 'EM BACK?

YOU'RE THE TYPE WHO'D PUT A FIRE OUT WITH GASOLINE!!

WELL, IT BEATS ME! THOSE MEN DIDN'T FOLLOW US FOR THEIR HEALTH! THEY WANTED SOMETHING!

YEAH, AND THE QUESTION BEFORE THE HOUSE, IS, WHAT?

WE HAVE FOOD ENOUGH FOR THREE MORE WEEKS AND, BETWEEN US, WE HAVE EXACTLY THREE DOLLARS AND FORTY CENTS! SURELY THEY WEREN'T AFTER THAT!

IT JUST DOESN'T MAKE SENSE! MEN DON'T CHASE KIDS DOWN A RIVER FOR NOTHING!

WELL, IN ANY CASE, WE'LL HAVE TO BE ON THE LOOKOUT, IN CASE THEY RETURN!

I COULD STAND GUARD—I HAVE MY BEAN-BLOWER HERE!

WE HAVEN'T ANY DRIED BEANS ON BOARD, AN' YUH'D HAVE A HECK OF A TIME GETTING CANNED SALMON OR ASPARAGUS THRU A BEAN-BLOWER!!

MYRA NORTH, SPECIAL NURSE

Karnak's Party Reaches Cairo

By THOMPSON AND COLL

HERE ARE YOUR EXTRADITION PAPERS, MR. WEN—YOU MAY LEAVE EGYPT WITH YOUR PRISONER AND YOUR COUNTRY'S VALUABLES. AT YOUR EARLIEST CONVENIENCE

ER... THANK YOU, SIR...

AS DEVRIES AND LEW WEN TURN TO LEAVE THE OFFICIAL'S OFFICE, LEW PAUSES AND IS ABOUT TO SPEAK... BUT HE FEELS A TUG ON THE HANDCUFFS... AND SUDDENLY DECIDES TO PLAY DEVRIES' GAME

MYRA WILL TAKE YOU TO THE HOSPITAL, MERLE—WE MUST HURRY TO HEADQUARTERS

PLEASE TRY TO BE BRAVE, MERLE—YOUR FATHER'S CONDITION, WHEN WE LAST SAW HIM WAS... WELL, VERY GRAVE... I'M SURE THEY'VE DONE EVERYTHING POSSIBLE TO SAVE HIM.

BUT THE TREASURES, ROHATEP'S MUMMY... DAD'S LIFE WORK... DOES HE KNOW THEY'RE GONE?

IN THE MEANTIME, CAPT. KARNAK'S PARTY, WEARY FROM THE OPPRESSIVE HEAT AND THEIR ADVENTURES, STRAGGLE THANKFULLY INTO CAIRO...

8 Pages of Comics in Full Color

Hope Star

Family's Favorite Funsters

HOPE ARKANSAS, SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 1936

THE NUT BROS. CHES & WAL

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

CAPTAIN EAST

T. M. REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

SOLDIER OF FORTUNE

ADVENTURE STAMPS
by I. S. Klein
The Living Dam of Freedom

MUSTAPHA KEMAL, liberator of the Turks, was defying the Sultan in 1920, when he was forced to face another enemy, the Greeks. A well-equipped army was advancing on Angora, Kemal's new capital. Moving along the Sakaria river, the invaders came to a narrow gorge, walled by steep cliffs. And facing them, from cliff to cliff, was a living dam—a ragged, impoverished army of patriotic Turks determined to turn back the Greeks at this spot. Men had forged swords from the hoops of cartwheels. Women were wielding axes and picks. Boys and girls over 14, half naked, almost starving, many even without weapons, stood there in a solid phalanx. Guns went into action. Thousands fell, but still the wall of humanity held. For 22 days and 22 nights, the Greeks attacked and the Turks resisted. Finally, exhausted, the enemy withdrew. At the cost of thousands of lives, Angora was saved. Sakaria Gorge, shown on stamps of 1926 and 1930, symbolized Turkish freedom.

OUT OUR WAY

WITH THE WILLETS.
BY J.R. WILLIAMS

THE COMIC ZOO

By Scarbo

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

IGUANAS

THESE REPTILES ARE TYPICALLY AMERICAN, SINCE ALL THE SPECIES COMPRISING THE VARIED FAMILY, SAVE ONE, OR TWO IN THE FIJI ISLANDS, ARE FOUND IN THE NEW WORLD.

ALTHOUGH IT FEEDS FROM THE SEA ENTIRELY, THE MARINE IGUANA SEEKS SHELTER ON DRY LAND/ DANGER, THREATENING IT ON LAND, WILL NOT FORCE IT TO ENTER THE WATER.

THE INTERIOR OF GALAPAGOS IS INHABITED BY A BRIGHT-COLORED LAND IGUANA, WHICH, BY DAY, LIES BENEATH CACTUS PLANTS AND FOLLOWS THE CREEPING SHADOWS.

CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA HAVE THEIR OWN SPECIES OF IGUANA, ONE OF THE MOST STRIKING BEING THE RHINOCEROS IGUANA, OF HAITI, WHICH BEARS A HORN ATOP ITS SNOUT.

THE LARGEST IGUANA IS FOUND IN THE GALAPAGOS ISLANDS/ THIS FIVE-FOOT MONSTER IS THE ONLY LIZARD THAT TAKES ITS LIVING FROM THE SEA/ IT FEEDS SOLELY ON SEAWEEDS.

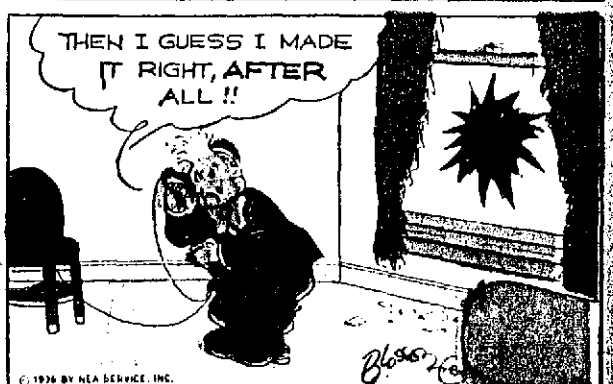

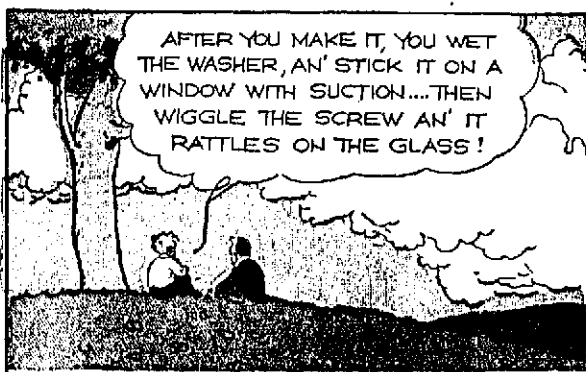

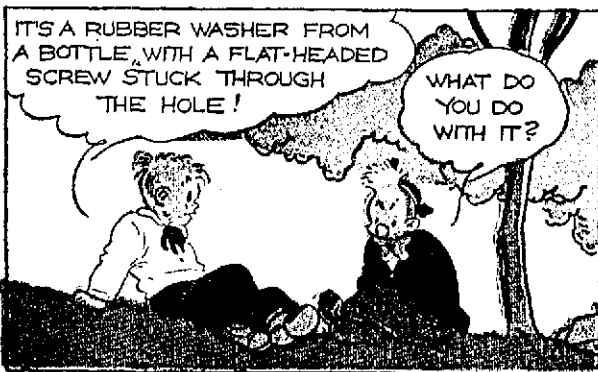

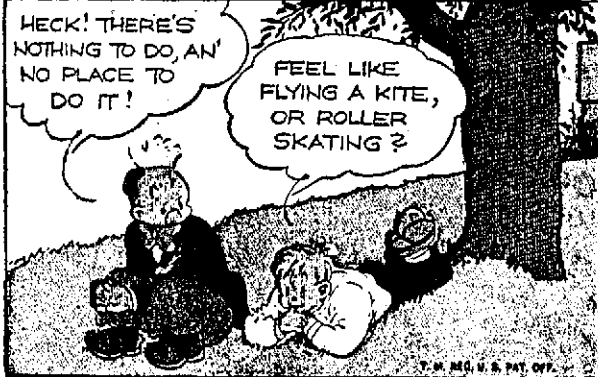

THE GIANT MARINE IGUANAS HAVE HELD TO THEIR LONE VOLCANIC ISLAND RELENTLESSLY... SURVIVORS OF A PREHISTORIC AGE/ TODAY, HOWEVER, THEIR NUMBERS ARE DECREASING/ THE HARDY RACE IS DYING OUT.

© 1936 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

8-2

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

By Blosser

© 1936 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

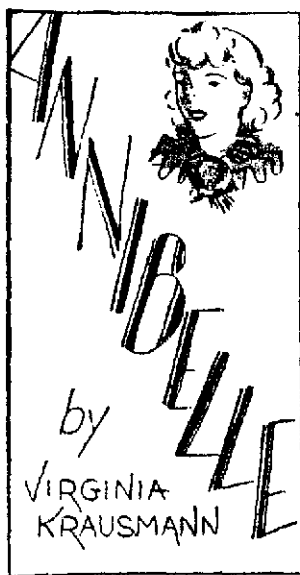

Blosser

HERKY

By Lewis

Myra North

Special Nurse
by RAY THOMPSON
and CHARLES COLL

UPON RETURNING FROM THE ANGURAN LEGATION, WHERE SHE WENT TO INVESTIGATE THE MYSTERY SURROUNDING HER BOY PATIENT, MYRA FINDS A GIFT BOX ON THE TABLE OF HER ROOM.

WELL, WELL-A LITTLE SURPRISE GIFT FOR MYRA, EH? THIS IS A BIT TOO CRUDE, AND RIGHT ON TOP OF THE BOMBING OF THE LEGATION.....

...THESE "FRIENDS" OF CURLY'S MUST THINK I'M STUPID!

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE A PAIL OF WATER TO STEAL A BOMB'S "THUNDER" - BUT WOULDN'T I FEEL SILLY IF IT REALLY WERE A GIFT FROM JACK.

HELLO-WHAT'S THIS?

JUST A LITTLE PRE-CAUTION, DOCTOR--OUR ANONYMOUS ENEMIES EVIDENTLY HEARD ABOUT OUR DISCOVERY OF THEIR BOMBING ACTIVITIES--HENCE THIS PERSONAL ATTENTION!

THE FIENDS! SENDING A THING LIKE THIS TO A HOSPITAL!

ARE YOU SURE IT HAS SOAKED LONG ENOUGH?

OH, YES! NOW WE WILL OPEN IT... I GUESS THIS IS A MATTER FOR THE POLICE.

THIS DOESN'T APPEAR TO BE A BOMB--IT'S...

GREAT SCOTT!

WHAT IS IT?

A TINY BUNGARUS JAVANICUS SNAKE, ONE OF THE MOST VENOMOUS REPTILES IN THE WORLD! IT'S A GOOD THING YOU USED THAT CANE TO HOLD THE BOX!

ARE YOU SURE IT'S DEAD?

MYRA'S NERVES ARE QUITE SHAKEN BY HER NARROW ESCAPE, AND WITH THE SHOCK COMES THE REALIZATION THAT HER ENEMIES ARE SMARTER THAN SHE ANTICIPATED!

THEY KNEW I'D TAKE IT FOR A BOMB, BUT THEY FIGURED ON MY HOLDING THE BOX IN MY HANDS.... IF IT WASN'T BY SHEEREST LUCK I...

QUICK, SEE IF THE BOY'S ALL RIGHT--WHILE I CALL THE AUTHORITIES.

CURLY, WHAT'S THE TROUBLE?

SOMEONE HAS TAKEN MY CLOTHES! I MUST GET THEM BACK! THERE'S A CERTAIN RING WITH A CREST!

A CRESTED RING, YOU SAY? THEN YOU DO KNOW WHO YOU ARE, AFTER ALL!

CHUCKS COTTON

CONTINUED NEXT WEEK!

